

WORKING WOMEN, WHAT THEY SHOULD KNOW

MRS. SADIE ABBOTT

MRS. PREE MCKITTRICK

Women for the most part spend their lives at home, and it is these women who are willing and ambitious that their homes shall be kept neat and pretty, their children well dressed and tidy, who do their own cooking, sweeping, dusting and often washing, ironing and sewing for the entire family, who call for our sympathy.

Truly the work of such a woman is "never done" and is it any wonder that she breaks down at the end of a few years, the back begins to ache, there is a displacement, inflammation or ulceration of the abdominal organs, a female weakness is brought on, and the struggle of that wife and mother to continue her duties is pitiful.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, is the exact medicine a woman needs whose strength is overtaxed. It keeps the feminine organs in a strong and healthy condition. In preparing for childbirth and recuperating therefrom it is most efficient. It carries a woman safely through the change of life and in making her strong and well assists her to be a good wife and mother.

Mrs. Sadie Abbott, of Jeannette, Pa., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
"I suffered severely with pain every month and also a pain in my left side. My doctor prescribed for me but did me no good; a friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I wrote you in regard to my condition. I followed your advice and am a perfectly well woman. The pains have all disappeared and I cannot recommend your medicine too highly."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail.

Mrs. Pree McKittrick, of La Farge, Wis., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:
"For six years I suffered from female weakness. I was so irregular that I would go from three weeks to six months, so I thought I would give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.
"Now I am once more well and can do my work without a pain. Any one who wishes, can write to me and I will answer all letters gladly."

Women should remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for the greatest number of actual cures of female ills. Every suffering woman in the United States is asked to accept the following invitation. It is free, will bring you health and may save your life.

Mrs. Pinkham's Invitation to Women.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Out of her vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that will help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

DONE AT WARRENTON YESTERDAY

NEWS OF THE HOUR AT THE LIVE WEST SIDE TOWN—NEW JAIL TO BE PROVIDED—PERSONAL NOTES.

WARRENTON, Or., April 23.—The steam schooner South Bay is due to arrive at Flavel dock today. She is to be loaded with lumber from the old Oregon mills of this town.

Last Sunday afternoon Mr. George W. Warren instructed one of his men to turn his horse, "Clatsop Chief," into the pasture adjoining the barns. On being let loose, the horse made his way to the creek, which runs through the meadow, and on reaching there stepped into a veritable mud trap. Immediately Mr. Warren, accompanied by two of his men, ran to where the horse was, and endeavored to get him out with the aid of a stout rope. The horse struggled vainly in the mud and eventually reached the side, but refused to climb the bank—he then turned around and after considerable labor on his part and on the part of the men, he got to the edge of the water twice more. Finding these maneuvers were only a waste of time and energy, Mr. Warren had two of his stout work horses harnessed and brought to the scene of action. It was but the work of a moment to secure the struggling animal with the rope and attach it, the rope, to the double trees of the harnessed horses. On the word of command the team tightened their traces and in a jiffy pulled the mud-submerged horse on to firm soil, none the worse for his mud bath. The horse is an imported Percheron stallion. The price paid for him by his present owner was $3600. Mr. Warren had the animal's name changed to Clatsop Chief after he had purchased him.

Favorable weather and a determination to have an enjoyable time, enabled the Misses Townsend, Miss Ellis, Miss Case and other friends, to spend an interesting and pleasant day at the beach yesterday.

Miss Mamie Coffe has gone over to Chinook, where she purposes spending a few happy days with her friends who reside there.

Mrs. J. Crandall, Mrs. B. Crandall, Mrs. C. F. Lester, Mrs. J. Dunn, Mrs. D. H. Warren, Mr. D. T. Halferty, Mr. Frank Hall and others made the round trip from here to Astoria and back on Monday.

A meeting of the Warrenton City Council was held, at the residence of the Mayor, C. F. Lester, last evening. Those present were the Mayor, Councilors G. W. Warren, J. Hoshart, R. J. Abbott and F. W. Preston, the City Attorney, Mr. Eawin, of Astoria; and the Marshal, Emil Erickson. Considerable business was transacted, and the writer, who was kindly permitted to attend, was thoroughly convinced welfare at heart. It was decided to advertise, in a manner specified in the motion, for bids for the erection of a city jail in accordance with plans, now in the hands of the city attorney. Another matter brought forward was the enforcing of the city ordinance on nuisances. Marshal Erickson was instructed to request all offenders under this ordinance, to at once comply with the requirements demanded therein. In commenting on this it may be said that when the property owners and residents have conformed with the law, as set forth in the above named ordinance, the City of Warrenton will surely have undergone a thorough cleaning up. Now that a city jail looms in our sight it behooves one to acquire definite knowledge of the city by-laws and take pains against being the forced guests of the Marshal.
